About Us

Barcode labels and tags enhance the image value of a product. These prove to be the trademark of a company, and play a very important role in marketing as they give unique identity to the products. Since the incorporation in 1985, we, New Highland Industries, relentlessly provide top quality of products with 100% functional reliability as well as on-time delivery assurance. Our high level of consistency, in terms of products and services have helped us to establish a strong market goodwill. They have also positioned us as the leading exporter, manufacturer, trader and supplier of Barcode Stickers, Barcode Labels, Thermal Transfer Ribbons, Wax Thermal Ribbons etc. We maintain the winning stride in the competition by continually upgrading our technology and appraising the performance of our employees. We mainly prefer to supply products in DELHI/NCR Only.

The cost down production techniques, streamlined production process and excellent pro-active service of New Highland Industries have helped it to remain far ahead of its competitors. We have extended our business deals into overseas countries, and have placed thorough efforts to offer products of global standards. Our offer covers an entire array of labels; ranging from blank labels for thermal transfer and laser printers to complete barcode label printing and tracking systems. We excel in printed labels and stickers, surpassing the global standards and marking a unique name in the market. Our products find their application in medical, pharmaceutical, electronics, warehouse, library and industrial tracking applications.
